Chapter 1 by Brooklynn A. Baartman

"Swan!" Hook yelled as he reached the underworld.

"Swan!," He kept yelling. He fell to the hot ground and started to cry. Then a man came to him.

"Get up you puny pirate," The man said. He had dark brown, almost black. He was quite large.

"She's not here, you will never see her again." He started to laugh.

"My name is Hades" The man said.

Hook stood up and wiped away his tears. He wanted Emma back so badly he couldn't take it. He slapped Hades with his one hand. Hades hair turned blue.

"How dare you touch me!" Hades yelled at Hook, and slapped him.

A girl with long, curly, brown hair in a pony tail, came in.

"Hades, grow up. Both of you!" She said.

Hook didn't know her, but she knew him.

Chapter 2 by Isabella Allyn

It was Captain Hook. I had seen him while he was still in Neverland. I was almost done with my plan. I just had to find a distraction for Pan and the Lost Boys. Then he showed up and gave me that distraction. When he and his brother came I knew how we were going to execute the plan.

Then the brother got dreamshaded. I wanted to tell Killian, but that would ruin my plan. As soon as they left I started to go on hand heard a rustle in the bushes in camp.

"Shit," I whispered under my breath.

"Watch your language young lady," Pan said behind me.

"Shuck off, Pan," I told him.

"Not until you tell me what you are doing," he prompted me.

"You know that this won't work in me. Just because I am a girl doesn't mean that I am going to fall for your tricks," I tell him. At this point I am kind of pissed at him.

"Oh, but you already have," he says.

The lost boys come out of the forest and surround me. Pan laughs,

"Look at her. She looks so helpless," he knows that irritates me.

Then I called upon my dad. The world opened up and I fell. The lost boys looked surprised as I looked up at them. As I fell I heard Pan,

"Damn!! I will get her!" he yelled down the hole.
